How it Works

- Easy to use sealing/validation application for Microsoft Windows
- Seal documents to establish existence at a given time and protect their integrity
- Validate the Seal to prove the document existed at the stated time and hasn't been altered since
- Sealed documents are saved in an AbsoluteProof "Digital Evidence" Envelope containing the document and the Seal
- Integrated into Windows Explorer for one-click sealing of Windows files
- Integrated into Microsoft Office for one-click sealing of Office documents
- Any third party can easily validate a sealed document using the freely-available AbsoluteProof Viewer.

Where it Works

- R&D environments where time and content integrity are critical to success
- Law Enforcement where security and chain-of-custody preservation is required
- Collaborative work environments where documents are accessed and stored on a common server
- Brokerage, trading and asset management where timing is a measure of financial success
- Archiving of important business and legal documents: contracts, HR, financials, trade secrets, Intellectual Property
- Organizations wishing to safely and seamlessly move from paper to electronic business processes.

About AbsoluteProof Trusted Time-Stamp Service

With millions of electronic records and files worldwide "sealed" by its service, Surety is a leading provider of data integrity protection solutions. Surety's AbsoluteProof trusted time-stamp service can mitigate risk, create significant business value, and defend the integrity and authenticity of electronic records and other valuable digital content.

AbsoluteProof ensures against content tampering by providing a "digital wax seal" for all types of electronically stored content.
